Notes:

I arrived at the site at 11:18 a.m. The weather is clear, 54°F, with the wind from the west at 30 mph. This site is located in the same area as the gas plant for the company. The tanks for oil are located in the southwestern area of the plant on the south side. The tanks are within a metal containment. Did not see any area that oil flowed off site or out of dike system. No further followup needed.
